

Upcoming March Meeting

Dr. Alexia Nalewaik has her own consulting firm, focusing on project cost management, governance, and process QA/QC. She serves as President-Elect on the board of nonprofit AACE International and is currently serving the International Cost Engineering Council as Immediate Past Chair and Research Chair. Alexia has recently published her first book with Anthony Mills, "Project Performance Review: Capturing the Value of Audit, Oversight, and Compliance for Project Success". Her presentation will explain the authors' journey to developing the methodology, introduce the project performance review model, and discuss several case studies.

March Speaker:

Dr. Alexia Nalewaik, Project Controls Director and Management Consultant

February Meeting

Thank you to those who attended the presentation on Scheduling Billion Dollar Projects with Bill Hendrickson, Project Controls Director on February 21, 2018 at the Williams Building. Additional members were able to attend virtually via Skype as well. It was exciting to learn about the scheduling approach for the local SLC Airport project. We also had the pleasure of watching a clip of Bill's daughter—Sarah's 2018 Olympic Ski Jumping Trials.
